

WWOR – Secaucus, NJ

This report covers the time period November 1, 2005 to October 31, 2007 (except where otherwise specifically noted).

I. PROGRAMMING:

- a. Local Newscasts: WWOR-TV airs seven hours of local news each week, at the following times:
Monday – Sunday: 10 p.m. -11 p.m.
- b. Breaking News Updates: WWOR broke into and/or preempted regularly scheduled programming on numerous occasions during the period covered by this report in order to bring its viewers breaking news or disaster information. This coverage included extended reporting on severe weather warnings, amber alerts, school closings, and other emergencies. A comprehensive list of cut-ins and crawls is attached as Exhibit 1
- c. Local News Stories: WWOR's Investigative and Special Projects Unit ("I-Team") dedicates itself to providing the public with important consumer stories as well as investigations that are aimed at assisting the public. Over the last few years, the dedication of this unit has provided its viewers with valuable information and resources that together have helped to protect and inform the community.

Provided below are some important news stories that were aired during the report period:

- o Bad Contractor: During this report, a serially bad long Island contractor who has left homeowners in the lurch is exposed. As a result of the report, Suffolk county officials seized the contractor's truck and equipment under a new law. The contractor was also sentenced to jail time. (Air Date: 9/30/05)
- o Text Spam: A channel 9 viewer contacted the station about concerns over receiving SPAM text messages. She had no control over what she was receiving and was charged hundreds of dollars. As a result of WWOR's report, Verizon changed its policy regarding text messaging. (Air Date: 10/21/05)
- o Minority Eating Disorders: A report about an increasing number of African American women battling anorexia. My 9 reported on this disturbing trend and gave the viewing audience resources that they could use if they were suffering from the disorder. (Air Date:- 11/23/05)

- Phone Card Scam: The I-Team uncovers a scheme by phone cards companies who were “shorting” consumers of air time and charging hidden usage fees. (Air Date: 2/17/06)
- Bad Medicine: Dr. Jose Lopez was sent to jail after an exclusive undercover investigation in 2005 discovered him performing cosmetic surgery without a valid medical license.. (Air Date: 3/9/06)
- Dangerous School: My 9 went undercover and followed school buses through Brooklyn, revealing dangerous driving with area school children on board. The story prompted school officials to make changes in their driver program. (Air Date: 3/15/06)
- Towing Wars: This was a 3 part series that brought to light the sometimes illegal business practices used by towing companies. (Air date: 3/28/06)
- Landlord Olefemi Falade was jailed following a WWOR expose of the deplorable conditions in his buildings. (Air date: 4/21/06)

A comprehensive list of the station’s local news stories is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

- d. Public Affairs Programming: WWOR produces and airs two public affairs programs, New Jersey Now and Real Talk. Each program consists of two 14-minute segments embracing two program topics, and air in the 8:30 a.m. – 9 a.m. time period on Sunday mornings, for a total of 30 minutes of public affairs programming per week:

- Three Doctors Foundation

WWOR's on-air newscasters and behind-the-scenes employees have made a commitment to participate in the New Jersey community. WWOR communicates with its community on a regular basis, both formally and informally. It is in close touch with the African American and Hispanic communities in New Jersey. Through its public affairs programming, Real Talk and New Jersey Now, the station stays current with its elected officials and community leaders who represent a wide variety of special interests.

A comprehensive list of ascertainties and community communication is attached as Exhibit 6.

IV. WEBSITE

The station's Web site, MyFoxNY.com, has a mission dedicated to providing prompt delivery of localized information to its viewing audience. News segments from every newscast are posted online daily. Stories are updated frequently, and stories not run on newscasts are often posted on the website. Weather page contained local NJ conditions and weather radar from the NY- NJ area. Other features of the website include:

- News page has links to community resources in many areas, including housing and food pantries. It also contains a link to the latest local, national and international news
- Video access to stories broadcast on My9 News; for example, the complete broadcast of Governor Corzine's State of the State and Budget addresses, and the Budget response of the Senate Minority leader are located on-line.
- I-Team page, containing the latest I-Team videos, allowing viewers to review previously aired stories, and to recommend them to friends and neighbors.
- Public Affairs page provides detailed information on public affairs programming on WWOR-TV and information about how viewers can offer suggestions, PSAs, and Community Calendar listings. The pages also contain summaries and details of specific shows broadcast by the Public Affairs Department, and internet links and/or telephone numbers for organizations profiled on the programs.
- Weather page contains local forecast for New Jersey and ten specific radar views, including three of New Jersey.
- Sports page, containing a My9 Fan blog, moderated by WWOR's sports reporter, where viewers can discuss local and national sports. It also contains a link to the latest national sports news.
- Scott School Standouts, a compilation of local sports features, and a page where viewers can offer suggestions for this segment on local athletes who also excel off the field.
- The home page contains links to NJ My Way, providing news of events, shopping and news from all over New Jersey. The home page also has a link to My Neighborhood Photo, where viewers are invited to submit their photos of neighborhood scenes and people.
- What's On page offers viewers detailed information on all WWOR-TV programming on an hourly and daily basis.

WWOR – SECAUCUS, NJ LOCAL NEWS

Our Investigative and Special Projects Unit dedicates itself to providing the public with important consumer stories as well as investigations that are aimed at assisting the public. Over the last few years, the dedication of this unit has provided it's viewers with valuable information and resources that together have helped to protect and inform the community.

Bad Contractor—Barbara Nevins Taylor

Air Date: 9/30/05

During this report, we expose a serially bad long Island contractor who has left homeowners in the lurch. Because of our report, Suffolk county officials get involved and he becomes the first contractor to have his truck and equipment confiscated under a new law. He is also sentenced to jail time.

Text Spam—Brenda Flanagan

Air Date-10/21/05

A channel 9 viewer contacted us with concerns over receiving SPAM text messages. She had no control over what she was receiving and was charged hundreds of dollars. Because of our report, Verizon decided to change its policy regarding text messaging.

Minority Eating Disorders-Brenda Flanagan

Air Date-11/23/05

An increasing number of African American women were battling anorexia. This was once a disease afflicting mostly affluent white women. My 9 reported on this disturbing trend and gave the viewing audience resources that they could use if they were suffering from the disorder.

Hartz Flea & Tick Drops -Brenda Flanagan

Air Date: 10/05

My 9 reported on a disturbing link between Hartz flea and tick drops and cats that had died. After our report and pressure from other media, Hartz recalled its product.

Fake Doctor—Barbara Nevins Taylor

Air Date: 12/4/06

Dean Faiello a man we exposed as a fake doctor was arrested after our initial report. Free on bail he continued his bad ways and killed a woman, buried her body in his home in Newark and fled to Costa Rica. In December 2006, he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to prison time.

Phone Card Scam-Brenda Flanagan

Air Date: 2/17/06

Phone cards can be purchased just about everywhere but what we uncovered during an investigation of them left our viewers stunned. Many phone cards were "shorting" consumers. They didn't have as many minutes on them as advertised. They were also charging outrageous usage fees that customers were unaware of. We exposed the offenders and warned the community against this unfair business practice.

Bad Medicine-Barbara Nevins Taylor

Air Date: 3/9/06

Dr. Jose Lopez goes to jail after our exclusive undercover investigation in 2005 literally found Lopez performing cosmetic surgery even though he had his license to practice medicine revoked in New York and New Jersey after a patient died in his NJ office. Lopez was prosecuted as a result of our exclusive story.

Dangerous School Buses-Brenda Flanagan

Air Date: 3/15/06

My 9 went undercover and followed school buses through Brooklyn. What we got on tape stunned officials. Buses running red lights and driving dangerously with area school children on board. Our story prompts school officials to make changes on who is driving kids to and from school.

NJ CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WALK TO WASHINGTON

On Feb. 1st, 2006, Public Affairs Consultant Ray Blanco, and Coordinators Ronica Harris and Joe Silvestri attended the New Jersey Chamber of Commerce's 69th Annual Walk to Washington. It is the premier networking event in the State in which thousands of business and political leaders meet in the nation's capital.

While there, we met with:

- Congressman Frank Pallone
- Congressman William Pascrell
- Then-Chief of Staff to Governor Corzine Tom Shea
- Former Congressman Bob Franks
- Then-Newark Mayoral Candidate Cory Booker and his advisor Pablo Fonseca
- State Senator Tom Kean, Jr.
- State Senator Ronald Rice
- Connie Ludwin – State Director of the Boys & Girls Clubs of NJ
- Marilyn Askin – President of AARP-NJ
- ...among others

We also met Senator Frank Lautenberg's staff at his offices in Washington, including then-Chief of Staff Tim Yehl, then-Communications Director Alex Formuzis, and Legislative Assistant & Counsel Douglas Mehan.

In addition to attending the annual Congressional dinner featuring members of the New Jersey Delegation as well as Governor Jon Corzine, Myg placed a full page ad in the journal.
